Polly and her cat.

One day Polly goes to a park for a walk. She wants to play with other children in the playground. She has a big sandwich in her hands. A dog notices a sandwich and runs to her. Polly starts to cry. She is afraid of the dog.

Suddenly a big cat jumps out of the bush. It starts to hiss. It is ready to jump on the dog. The dog stops and looks carefully at the girl and at the cat. The dog runs away from them. Polly is very happy. She takes the cat and says:

“Thank you so much, my new friend! Do you want to live with me?”

Polly brings the cat to her parents. She tells them a story about the brave cat. Polly’s parents allow the cat to live in their house. Now Polly has a good friend and the cat has a big family and a place to live.
